WC ADVOCACY PROGRAM

The WC Advocacy Program is an hour-long session designed to guide our campus partners in becoming the best Welcome Center advocates they can be for WSU students. We will cover topics like what can students expect when reaching out to the Student Service Center, important dates and deadlines, and how to remove obstacles for students related to our partner offices (Admissions, Financial Aid, Records, and Student Accounts Receivable). Attendees will leave with a foundation of knowledge they can draw on to help guide their students and connections with the Welcome Center community who are ready and eager to assist their students.
