

Family Medicine program alumnus Dr. Philip Riley is a recipient of the Bonnie Simmons-Sherr, MD award from the WSU Dept. of Family Medicine and Public Health Sciences. This award is designed to encourage residents graduating from the Family Medicine program to practice in underserved communities in Michigan. Residents must be in good standing in the program, demonstrate excellence in academic, scholarly, and clinical work, and possess a signed contract of employment at an ambulatory, continuity, or clinical practice located in a Health Profession Shortage area (HPSA) at the time of award selection. Dr. Riley is now working at the Henry Ford Allegiance Family Medicine Center in Brooklyn, Michigan. Congratulations to Dr. Riley!
